CELEBRATE WITH PRIDE AND RAISE FUNDS FOR LGBTQ MENTAL HEALTH

ACON is inviting everyone in our communities coming together to celebrate diversity, pride, love and equality to host their events in support of LGBTQ health and wellbeing.

Whether you're celebrating at home or at your office, with your friends or colleagues, through your local business or community group, make it a celebration that makes a difference by raising funds for ACON. Your support will help power our efforts to improve the lives of LGBTQ people and their families in NSW.

ABOUT ACON

THANK YOU FOR CELEBRATING WITH PRIDE AND RAISING FUNDS FOR LGBTQ MENTAL HEALTH

While many members of Australia's LGBTQ communities lead healthy and happy lives, a large proportion of LGBTQ people experience significant health disparities when compared to the broader population. Consider the following:

- LGBTQ people experience higher levels of depression, anxiety disorders and distress than people in the general community, and that LGBTQ+ people are at an increased risk of suicide and suicide ideation than the general population.
- LGBTQ people use alcohol and drugs at significantly higher rates than the general community, especially tobacco and illicit drugs.
- Up to 55% of LGBTQ Australians have experienced discrimination and exclusion in the places where they live, work, study and play.

As NSW's leading LGBTQ health organisation, ACON works hard to provide a range of programs and services that help address many of the health issues that are experienced by our communities.

The information and services we provide – such as counselling, substance support, anti-violence initiatives and inclusion programs – as well as advocacy and research we undertake, all help to improve the health and wellbeing of LGBTQ people and their families.

Celebrate With Pride allows people and communities across NSW to make an impact! When you make your event an ACON fundraiser, you are helping our efforts to strengthen the health and wellbeing of LGBTQ communities.

Thank you for making a difference!
